Nominations will be evaluated on the evidence of a commitment to advancing diversity, equity and inclusion, including going above and beyond the nominee's position description. Evidence may include the following:

- Actively enhanced the recruitment of diverse students and faculty
- Engaged in innovative curriculum and program development across communities of difference
- Advanced diversity, equity and inclusion through academic research and scholarship
- Developed experiential or immersive learning that expands consciousness and responsibility related to social justice
- Pursued grants that advance diversity, equity and inclusion
- Advised individual students or student organizations and created pathways to success

Nominations may be submitted by any Oregon State student or employee, or employee of the OSU Foundation & Alumni Association or INTO OSU.

The nominator shall submit all of the following items, in one PDF to the email address below.

Please submit items in this order:

1. This nomination form
2. A statement from the nominator not exceeding two single-sided pages using 12pt font and 1" margins summarizing why the nominee should be selected for the Outstanding Diversity Advocate Award. Please address the award criteria in the statement.
3. Two letters of support from community members internal to OSU (e.g. students, faculty, staff, volunteers), or external to OSU (e.g. community organizations, professional organizations). Please be certain the letters of support address the award criteria.
4. The nominee's curriculum vitae OR a professional resume highlighting the above criteria.

*Note: Please request materials from the nominee or their supervisor if you do not have access.

Nominations must be received by April 15, 2022.
