

Oscar Humberto Montemayor Award

Nomination

Over a three-decade career at Oregon State, Oscar Humberto Montemayor served the OSU community with diligence and grace. He was limitlessly dedicated to the success of students. After graduating from Oregon State, Oscar served as the academic counselor with the College Assistance Migrant Program for many years and later served as the Associate Director for Academic Success with Diversity & Cultural Engagement. Through his deeds and spirit, Oscar was himself a home away from home for countless Oregon State students.

Following his passing in October 2016, a colleague wrote that, Oscar “was a friend, mentor, colleague, elder, witness, storyteller, and joyful comrade in this struggle for justice. He was loved, respected, and cherished by all who met him.”

A student remembered that “Oscar was truly a force of good in a world that is tragically full of sorrow. Always smiling, always concerned, always putting the needs of others ahead of himself.”

Finally, a colleague noted that “Oscar was a leader for social justice in ways that we cannot even count, or recognize, because they are so widespread and ubiquitous.”

In recognition of Oscar’s lasting legacy at Oregon State, the Oscar Humberto Montemayor Award honors an Oregon State student who embodies Oscar’s ethos of selfless service; steady, strong, considerate leadership; and trailblazing spirit and heart.
